THE PRESIDENT'S PAGE

By H. GORDON McFARLANE

The National Recreation Association published a book called "A Treasury of Living" in 1950. It was written by the late president of the association, Howard Braucher.

The chapter that most impressed me was Mr. Braucher's message he sent to friends at Christmas time. The following is the message he sent in 1906, which I believe is most appropriate for our Christmas edition of The Postgrad:

"It would be hard for any man to over estimate what he has received from those true friends whose wealth and personality has enriched his own. The child in passing left his faith; the young man his unconquered ideals; the man his power; the mother her tender sympathy; the old man his calm. They went their way and knew not their lives were mine forever. To acknowledge to oneself the debt to those who have shared even a little of their life and strength with him; to realize that one's purposes, ideals, and enthusiasm have been largely kindled by those friends; to feel that the friends one has known well have really become a part of one's own life, so that they would continue to live in one even should they die; to be conscious that one is only passing on a life which friends have given him — is to be forced to make acknowledgement to those who have so generously given the inspiration of their friendship. The day of the birth of the Christ child seems not an unfitting time to own the debt to some of these friends through whose lives the Christ-spirit has been meditated to one's own."

SIR GEORGE WILLIAMS UNIVERSITY?

A private bill changing the name of Sir George Williams College to that of Sir George Williams University will come up before the Quebec legislature during the current session.

Sponsored by H. Alistair Somerville (N.-U - Huntingdon), the draft legislation states that the name Sir George Williams College is inconsistent with the university status of that Montreal institution.

Furthermore, the world "College" would cause confusion as to the educational work being performed by an institution which would be in fact an operating university.

NOMINATED TO ALUMNI BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The following are graduates who were nominated to the board of directors of the college's Association of Alumni at a general meeting held in Montreal on Dec. 9.

1-Year Terms: J. G. Bradley, R. Hayes, M. Gold, G. Miller, C. Nichols, D. Zachary, R. Smythe.

2-Year Terms: G. C. Donaldson, Dr. C. H. Dundas, J. Ferguson, T. Lande, H. G. McFarlane, P. Pitsiladis, T. Plunkett.

3-Year Terms: A. Fineberg, H. S. McEvoy, G. Mullins, B. Oliver, G. Sinel, M. Sanders, F. Stannard.

MARRIAGE COURSE POPULAR

The University of Ottawa's family life courses were the most popular single subject with the 120,923 adults who enrolled in Canadian universities last year.

The Bureau of Statistics, reporting on returns from 37 universities and colleges, said the lists were topped by the 16,395, including correspondence students, who took the Ottawa marriage course.

The Ottawa marriage preparation course has a 15-year history, centring in the Catholic Centre of Ottawa University under the direction of Rev. A. Guay OMI.

Its popularity among Canadians is reflected in some 25 other countries, the course having been issued now in 15 different national editions.

The countries involved, besides Canada and the United States, include Belgium, Holland, Germany, Italy, Spain, Lebanon, India, Australia, and New Zealand.

Several of these editions, such as the Spanish one, serve a great many countries at the same time.

126 AWARDED DEGREES; '59 CLASS TOTALS 466

One hundred and twenty-six graduates were granted degrees at the college's annual fall convocation in the Salvation Army Citadel on Nov. 28. This class of graduates brought the total for 1959 to 466.

Speaking of college expansion, Dean Robert C. Rae commented, "Since occupying the new college building on Drummond St. in 1956, Sir George Williams College enrollment has risen from 4125 to 6214. There are 4,500 of our 6,000 students registered in the evening division which means that they are students from five to eight years rather than the customary four full years for day students.

"In the next two or three years our graduating classes will reflect this increased enrollment. In this same period total enrollment in the College and its five schools has grown from 9723 to 13,126.

The following is a list of graduates:

DR. HALL AND FRIEND: No, Sir George isn't giving degrees to them at this age. This young fellow was just an interested spectator at the recent SGW High School graduation exercises. Dr. Henry F. Hall, principal of the college and schools, looks like he's telling the youngster that it's going to take a while to get from kindergarten to Sir George.
